

HUMBOLDT COUNTY

Named for a famous German naturalist, Humboldt County is an evergreen show-case for the world's tallest trees. Here are outstanding hunting and fishing, camping and beach-combing.

Eureka is the commercial and industrial center of northwestern California, and offers the traveler a stimulating blend of historic and modern structures.

Side trips off the Redwood Highway reward travelers with a look at the West as it was a century ago—still unspoiled, still challenging.
