Dear Mr. Nittler

It was with pleasure that we received your report of reception of KBZZ Radio. We were more than happy to run the special program. And we hope that in the not too distant future that we may again be of service to the National Radio Club. Thank you ever so much for the information in your report. Please accept this letter as verification of your DX report on the special DX show on January 16 19 61.

Sincerely yours,
