Dear Sir:

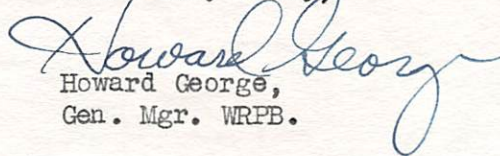

We acknowledge your Radio reception of March 28, 1955. Your reception matches with ours of said date.

WRPB went on commercial schedule as of November 15, 1954 using Collins equipment throughout, with a stainless 200 foot antenna.

Danny Ratliff, our A.M. Announcer , was playing along with "How'd Ja Do".

Enclosed you will find a Chamber of Commerce folder, about 2 years old. Since that time Warner Robins has grown to approximately 27,000. The town is named after the first General to command Robins Air Force Base. This was General Warner Robins.

Yours Very Truly,

Howard George,
Gen. Mgr. WRPB.
