

WAVL

910 Kilocycles

1,000 Watts

Offices, Studios and Transmitter Atop Beautiful Orchard Hills

Apollo, Pennsylvania

GRover 2-3921

This is to verify your reception of W A V L, Apollo, Pennsylvania, 4:18 to 4:41 AM, 2/2/1959. TNX for the report. Apollo is located 30 miles East of Pittsburgh, Penna., in the foothills of the Allegheny Mountains. Elevation is 1268 feet. The transmitter is Gates BC-IE, The tower is a 250 ft. Windcharger; the ground system consist of 187 radials 297 feet in length. The studio equipment is Western Electric and Gates.

Our initial equipment test was 12/3/47 and initial program test was 12/13/47. All reports are welcomed and verified.

73's

H. E. Smith, Chief Engineer

Welcome to The "Early Bird Jamboree" with "Uncle Early" and "Beesie", our pet cow.

Bruce Jangles
(Uncle Early)