Dear Mr. Sampson,

Thank you for your letter reporting reception of one of our broadcasts on December 16, 1963. I am very pleased to hear from you. The transmission from 1502 kc/s at present comes from Warsaw. It was changed from Kraków a few months ago.

Enclosed please find a QSL card in verification of your report and our general programme schedule.

Under separate cover we are sending you a copy of RADIO I TELEWIZJA which gives the listing of local stations. A copy of the magazine POLAND is also on the mails for you. I hope you like it.

Looking forward to hearing from you again I am,

Sincerely yours,

Director.
