Dear John:

This is to confirm that you were listening to KCCV radio station on November 13. You also heard the correct announcements for the programs you listed on the AM station.

I am enclosing a program guide for you as well so you can see the programs we air, as well as a pocket guide listing all the areas we cover. You can also listen to us online at bottradionet.com.

May you have a very blessed Christmas!

Regards,
