Dear John:

This letter confirms your reception of WNWC(AM) on 1190 kHz on Monday, November 17, 2008, from 2:50 to 3:00 PM CST, based on your description of the programming heard.

WNWC operates daytime at 5 kW into a 2-tower array with a broad SW-NE cardioid pattern with a moderate amount of power to the northwest in your direction. We have a null toward WOWO to our SE.

By my calculations, you are located at an azimuth of 324 degrees from our tower site at a distance of 351.0 miles.

WNWC (Sun Prairie, WI) and WNWC-FM (Madison, WI) are owned and operated by Northwestern College in St. Paul, MN. More information can be found on our web site at <www.faith1190.com>.

Thanks for taking the time to write and giving us a signal report, and may you have continued DXing success!
