Dear Mr. Sampson:

Thank you for your reception report of "The Sports Station" AM 1660 WQSN Kalamazoo, Michigan. The details of your report of May 22, 1999 at 2150 to 2200 EDT agree with our official program log on that date and time. I am very pleased to confirm your listening report by way of this QSL letter.

AM 1660 WQSN is one of 85 Expanded Band stations licensed between 1610 and 1700 kHz. The station first signed on the air the evening of September 24, 1998, with non-directional signals of ten thousand watts day and one thousand watts night. The coordinates of our transmitter site are N42.14.11 W85.34.37. This is a shared transmitter site with our co-owned AM 1470 WKLZ. Since our sign-on, we've received hundreds of listener letters from thirty-seven of fifty U.S. states, five Canadian provinces, Bermuda, Finland, Sweden, the United Kingdom, France, Germany, Italy, The Canary Islands and New Zealand!

AM 1660 WQSN is owned by Fairfield Broadcasting Company, locally owned and operated since 1972. In addition to AM 1660 WQSN, our holdings (all in Kalamazoo) are AM 1470 WKLZ (800 watts days, 1,000 watts nights, directional at night), AM 590 WKZO (5,000 watts days and nights, directional at night), and Q-106.5 WQLR-FM (50,000 watts non-directional).

AM 1660 WQSN is a full-time sports station and is affiliated with the One-On-One Sports Network. AM 1470 WKLZ is a full-time talk station and is affiliated with NBC and CNN News. AM 590 WKZO, one of the pioneer U.S. stations (established in 1930) is Kalamazoo's News/Talk station and is locally programmed. Q-106.5 WQLR-FM has an Adult Contemporary format and is an R&R, Gavin and Network 40 reporting station.

Thanks again for making radio an important part of your life and for sharing your listening with us. Feel free to visit our station on the world wide web. Our address is www.wqsn.com.

Cordially,

Ken Lanphear
