POST OFFICE BOX 222
WEBSTER CITY, IOWA

Sept. 11 1961

Dear John,

This letter is to serve as a verification report of July 25, 1961; 609-6:23 P.M.

I bet you had given up on getting a letter from us. I misplaced your letter under a bunch of papers in my desk. So it is with a little guilty feeling that I am answering it.

I find that your timing of the program is even more accurate than our own leg. You should make a good radio man. The one shortcoming of all announcers is their keeping of the leg.

Keep up the good work.
