Dear Mr. Sampson:

What a pleasure it was to receive your letter of December 9, 1993, in which you reported reception of WHJM on Wednesday, December 8.

This letter is to confirm your reception and to thank you for taking time to notify us in such a complete manner.

If it gets too cold for you there in Minneapolis, come on down to Tennessee for a visit. This is a beautiful area.

Thanks again for writing.

Sincerely,

Harry J. Morgan

Mr. Sampson,
Here is a copy of our response back in '93.
Apparently it went astray.
We always try to answer
the DX-ers. Thanks for writing again!
