

148½ NORTH FRONT ST.
SARNIA - ONTARIO

March 16, 1966.

Mr. John N. Sampson,
90 Pearl Street,
NEW PROVIDENCE, N.J., 07974, U.S.A.

Dear Mr. Sampson:

We thank you for your letter of March 9th, 1966 in which you report receiving CH"OK" on the same date at 11:08 p.m. E.S.T. We are pleased to confirm your report. As you are aware, such reports assist a station in determining it's coverage area.

For your information, CH"OK" broadcasts with 5,000 watts non-directional from sunrise to sunset and with a Figure-8 pattern directional Northwest by Southeast after sunset and before sunrise.

To provide you with some information concerning our area, we are enclosing printed material provided by the Sarnia Chamber of Commerce.

Thanking you for your interest and wishing you continued good listening,

Yours sincerely,

RADIO STATION CH"OK"

Karl E. Monk
Karl E. Monk,
General Manager.

KEM:ces
Encls.

The "Chemical Valley" of Canada

SARNIA
ONTARIO

Midway on the Seaway

SARNIA, an important Great Lakes port for trans-ocean shipping, enjoying pleasant living conditions, agreeable climate, sound civic government and cultural amenities, offers abundant low-cost power, unlimited water, serviced industrial sites, natural gas, salt, crude oil, synthetic rubber, carbon black, ammonia, chlorine, caustic soda, glycols, refined petroleum, industrial solvents and latexes.

OK RADIO
DIAL 1070