Dear Mr. Sampson,

This is to confirm your report of reception of radio station WBLT at 8:44 PM EDT July 13th, 1970.

Your report of the sign off announcement and playing of the National Anthem was close enough to know that you were copying WBLT. I'm surprised that you could copy at all, due to the number of other stations on 1350 kc.

This station has been on the air about twenty years, operates with 1 kw of power and uses Gates Radio equipment throughout. The call letters, incidentally, are derived from a slogan Bedford has long used: World's Best Little Town.

Thanks for your report.

Yours truly,

John P. Laughlin

Dear Jehn:

This is to verify your reception of WBLT's signal and to thank you for your interest. The announcer on duty that night was Phil Beckman and the information quoted in your letter as having been received was essentially correct. We are however the Bedford Broadcasting Corp.

Keep up the good work.

Sincerely,

Jim Synan
