

WFGW; Black Mountain, North Carolina; 1010 kc/s:

WFGW
Black Mountain
North Carolina

Wednesday, January 27, 1971
5:41 $\frac{1}{2}$ PM to 5:44 $\frac{1}{2}$ PM - Eastern Standard Time
1010 kilocycles

5:41 $\frac{1}{2}$ Announcement that the program in progress was ending 5:42 The "Trumpet's Lullaby" by Leroy Anderson was played 5:43 A sign off announcement was given. This included announcements that

- WFGW would sign on at 7:45 AM the next morning
- to listen to the finest in programs over WFGW (including religious & news)
- WFGW transmits with 50000 watts of power, 10000 watts
during critical hours
- to tune in to WMIT-FM for a continuation of the programming
- WFGW is owned & operated by the Blue Ridge
Broadcasting Corp
- Studios, offices & transmitter of WFGW are located on US 70

5:44 The announcement ended & "Trumpet's Lullaby" continued
5:44 $\frac{1}{2}$ WFGW left the air

Verified
by Rich Jensen
1-13-73