Mr. Sampson,

This will be a verification of reception of WRXO with one exception. The exception involved is one of time, but in this case I the verification is valid, at least to the extent noted below.

You have listed station I.D. as 2:27 followed by weather forecast. As we are using automation in the afternoon the weather is injected into the program automatically and the service from which we get the weather is programmed for each half hour on the half hour. There is a station I.D. programmed to fall between 2:28 & 2:30 with the weather at 2:30 to 2:32. Time & another I.D. usually follow the weather, & or, the news, which is on the hour.

Mr. Simpson, I think, with the above mentioned exception, you can accept this as a verification of reception on 11/10/68.

Thanks for the interest,
Sincerely

Charles S. Wade, Jr.
