

KNELLER HALL DIRECTOR'S MISSION.

By permission of the War Office and the Commandant of the Royal Military School of Music, Kneller Hall, Captain H. E. Adkins, Director of Music at the Hall, has been released for an engagement with the Australian Broadcasting Commission. Captain Adkins will visit Australia for the purpose of conducting a national military band specially assembled for the purpose, and will conduct a series of band concerts.

Captain Adkins arrived at Fremantle on the "Strathaird" on 6th December, 1933, and will conduct the A.B.C. Military Band throughout an Australian tour.

POST

CARD

Correspondence

Address

THE AUSTRALIAN BROADCASTING COMMISSION values your reports and your co-operation and appreciates at all times any suggestions which would tend to improve its programmes or its service.

We confirm the reception of our transmission as reported - good listening!

C.M.HOSKING.

5 CL, ADELAIDE.
5 CK, CRYSTAL BROOK.