

TRINIDAD, COLO.

THE HOME OF

KGIW

MR. DAVID F. THOMAS

This card acknowledges your report of receiving our program of Feb. 12, 1932

Your report is verified by our log.
Thank you.

LEN WILSON

Trinidad, Colorado, is located at the foot of Fisher's Peak in the center of the largest bituminous coal fields in the state; and a rapidly growing agricultural district. Located on three National highways. County seat of Las Animas County, — the largest county in Colorado.

Located fifteen miles from the New Mexico State line. Population 14,500. Noted for its healthful climate — wonderful pure water; and unexcelled mountain scenery.