

PROGRAM VERIFICATION

Of Radio Station

WOMI

Radiophone of the Owensboro, Kentucky
MESSENGER AND INQUIRER

Your report on F.C.C. Frequency program on March 11 at 3:50 A M, checks with our Station Log. The next DX broadcast will be on the air
April 8th, 1938, at 3:50 A M., C.S.T.

FACTS ABOUT OWENSBORO: Founded in 1790, on the Ohio river 114 miles Southwest of Louisville. Population 1930 was 22,765; in 1955, population was 29,500. Bank deposits December 31, 1937 were $8,138,668.00. One of the Nation's largest tobacco markets. Retail business approximately 75% greater than in 1933. First in Kentucky in per capita industrial investment. Produces Ken-Rad, the better radio tube, long-lived Ken-Rad Electric Lamps, world renowned Kentucky bourbon, furniture, wagons, brick, tile, rough lumber, etc. Forty-one manufacturing establishments, two newspapers, one radio station.

FROM THE HOME OF
KEN-RAD TUBES
DAILY CAPACITY 85,000

Ken-Rad
DEPENDABLE
PERFORMANCE
OWENSBORO BROADCASTING COMPANY
Incorporated

By

Asa W. Adkins, Jr.
Asa W. Adkins, Jr. Eng.