Dear Mr. Thomas:

This is to acknowledge and verify your DX reception of KLFT on Monday, November 26, 1956.

Our longest street in the world is a bayou—Bayou Lafourche. The section that we refer to as a street extends some 75 miles, from Thibodaux past Golden Meadow. Houses are abundant and in close proximity the entire length, and it has been estimated that a rock can be thrown from neighbor to neighbor for the full 75 miles.

That's our busy street—the one that's known as the longest in the world. Here's wishing you a happy Holiday Season.

Sincerely,

H. Earl Herron
Station Manager
