Dear Sir:

Your letter to Station WCX "way up on the thirtieth floor of the Book-Cadillac Hotel" shows your interest in this remarkable new Broadcasting Station. We are very glad that you have received so much enjoyment from this station in the past and we hope that you will continue to derive a great deal of pleasure from listening in.

Whenever you are in Detroit do not fail to visit the Broadcasting Studio, which is open at all times to guests of the Book-Cadillac. You will find that the Hotel is a most delightful place to stop. Its furnishings and appointments are of the finest in every detail. There is comfort, refinement and a service that is perfect in that it is unobtrusive and yet always present.

We are pleased to say that our guests pay no premium for the superlative comforts which they enjoy at the Book-Cadillac. In fact, of our twelve hundred sleeping rooms each with bath, there are 475 at the minimum rate and $5.00.

We do hope that we will have the pleasure of entertaining you and your friends whenever you are in Detroit. We want you to feel that you have a second home at the Book-Cadillac, where you will always find a warm and genuine welcome.

Very truly yours,

Roy Carruthers
