Dear Mr. Thomas:

Your card of October 6 was received, on which you report your reception of test broadcasts from station WKLA. This will verify your reception of our broadcasts.

Your report was very interesting and helpful, too, and we hope we may hear from you again. We went on the air yesterday, October 8, for a series of broadcasts from eight in the morning till ten at night, and we expect to have our official opening on or about November 10, 1944.

We should like to hear from you again from time to time.

Yours very truly,

K. L. Ashbacker
