Dear Mr. Thomas,

This will acknowledge with thanks your much appreciated letter, with reference to our test programme presented over this station from 5.00-5.15 a.m., on Monday March 10th, 1952.

I am very pleased to say that the programme material listed in your letter checks with our station's log book.

May I conclude by again thanking you very sincerely for the information you supplied in connection with our test programme presented on March 10th.

I do hope that you will listen to our station again, and a report from you would be most appreciated.

With Best Wishes,

I am,

H. R. Bethel,
Station Manager, ZNS.

PS. With reference to receiving letters from New Zealand, we <sup>have</sup> received two from Invercargill N. Z., and three from Dunedin New Zealand.
