Dear Mr. Thomas,

May we say that we certainly do appreciate your DX Letter concerning our broadcast of 19 December 1955. Your report was received with much interest by the entire staff.

Your report is correct. Below, in part, is our continuity.

4:14 Selection "Beginners Luck" Sung by Betty Johnson
4:17 Station Identification and comments on weather down here plus more readings from the NRC Bulletin
4:19 Selection "Kissing Dance" Frankie Carle Orch

We continued on until 5:00AM EST at which time we began our regular broadcast schedule. Most of the reports received say that carrier interference began about 4:30AM altho Buffalo could read us at 4:58, then Cuba blanked us out. Will have to try next broadcast at earlier hour.

We again wish to express our sincere thanks for your DX report and hope to hear from you again.

Season's greetings from the gang here.

Sincerely yours,

Alfred H. Affolter
