Dear Dave,

I am NOT the chief engineer at WBYN. I never was and I hope I never will be. Joe Enz, who authored that piece in your DX newspaper, is slightly confused. He has succeeded in doing an excellent job of fouling* me up. (*Original word censored.) I'm just an operator there. Anyway, after that item appeared, I wrote in complaining and asked them to correct the error, which they did. I also said that I would send a verification to anyone writing me at my home address. I hope the enclosed verification answers the purpose.

I don't know anything about the station when it first came into being. I didn't work for them at the time. I suggest you forget the whole thing.

Well, thanks for you letter. Nice to have heard from you and best of luck.

Sincerely,
