The signal faded at times and I was never able to hear the call letters however the RT 11, New Durham ad indicated that I was hearing your station. There was interference from the Providence, RI station at 1220. I would appreciate your confirmation of the transmission and any information on your station and programming.

The signal was received at Marshfield, Massachusetts, a coastal community 30 miles south of Boston, Ma.

Enclosed is a self-addressed, stamped envelope.
